TO OUR NEW GIRLS TO BE

Welcome, dear new girls of 1926-1927. It is primarily to welcome you that we are sending this little book; then next, it is to try to impart to you a little bit of the spirit of LaGrange College even before you arrive on the Hill. We want you to read every page carefully, even to the covers, which are, as you see, our college colors, red and black.

The Young Women's Christian Association, Student Government Association, and indeed all the organizations of our school need you, your help, and your enthusiasm. We want you to share all of our joys, ~~yes~~, and our sorrows, too, which are so few in comparison to the joys that they can hardly be called sorrows at all.

Remember, LaGrange is already a fine, splendid college, one of the finest and foremost in the South; but we want to make this year the greatest and best that it has ~~ever~~ known. We are glad that you are going to help us.

The doors of LaGrange are open to you. We gladly bid you enter.

THE SPIRIT OF LAGRANGE COLLEGE

A great heritage is ours in being students of LaGrange College. Many wonderful gifts have been left us by ~~these~~ students of other years—gifts that will last forever and not fade with the giving.

The greatest thing that has ever been created on "College Hill" is the LaGrange College spirit, How undefinable, and yet how real a thing it is!

How powerful in the life of every LaGrange girl!

It seems to us that no other institution of learning has ever sent out from its halls women more loyal to their Alma Mater than has LaGrange College.

This LaGrange spirit seems to be something lasting. It grips the very soul and holds steadfastly—not just through four years of college, but through life.

At a recent meeting of one of our Alumnae Chapters, held in a small Georgia town, some very old women were present. It is said that their eyes shone with a different light and they even forgot their infirmities when the words "LaGrange College" were spoken. What is it which fills their very souls and makes their whole being throb with this spirit of love for our college?

It is the fact that they have learned to appreciate and understand the high ideals and standards for which LaGrange College has always stood. It is because they have been loyal and true to those high ideals and have been made better for it. It is because of the lasting friendships and hallowed associations connected with the College.

Shall not we who are here now keep this spirit of love for L. C. imbedded deep in our hearts, and shall we not manifest this love by being loyal to our work, to our faculty, to our student government, and to every organization on the hill?

We must keep burning this spirit of loyalty in order to give the students of future years the same great heritage that has been ours.

You are most cordially invited to the New Students by

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association, based on powers and laws granted by the President and Faculty has control of all matters pertaining to the conduct and social life of the students. Each student should learn to appreciate that the least disregard of the rules on her part means extra care upon her fellow students, who, though conscientiously assuming office under the Association, have yet to come to College to enjoy and make use of the advantages that LaGrange College offers. The life and work of the College is based on the Honor System and this system applies not only to the rules and regulations concerning conduct, but to mid-year and final examinations, monthly and weekly tests, and to all written work such as note-books and themes.

For the success of this system, it is essential that each student have embedded in her character, and exemplified in her life the fundamental principles of truth and honesty. With the granting of the charter, there was entrusted to each student the keeping of her own honor and the honor of the College. We look to her to keep and guard this sacred trust in all of her college relations.

As long as this College endures, may its Student Government, founded on honor, truth, co-operation and service, stand for all that is finest and best in the college life, and may every student be a better woman, a better servant of humanity because of her membership in the Student Government Association of LaGrange College.

“Self reverence, self knowledge, self control;
These three alone lead life to sovereign power,
Yet not for power (power of herself
Would come uncalled for) but to live by law,
Acting the law we live by without fear;
And, because right is right, to follow right,
Were wisdom in the score of consequence.”

This is the spirit of Student Government and may it be the spirit of each one of you.

THE L. C. GIRLS' CREED

Life is mine to live. That I may cherish it
And right royally meet its responsibilities,
I would lay aside that which is
Narrow, selfish, ignoble and unkind.
The false, superficial, the dishonest
I would shun in thought, word and deed.
Rather may I cultivate in my college life
Those traits and ideals that will fit me
To weave dreams into realities, and impressions into character;
To meet bravely the hard tasks of life;
To bring joy to those who sorrow, and
Strength to those who falter in their tasks.
I would strive to judge more kindly,
Trust more fully, and love more deeply
That my life may reflect His goodness,
And my soul may grow in the knowledge
Of Him, whom to know is Life Eternal.

Honor

“The greatest thing in the world is Honor. For it, men die that the heritage of the future may be kept clean. To say that a person is honorable is the highest tribute that can be paid to a human being—it is crowning one’s character with the brightest laurels. ‘It is Honor that keeps us clean; clean so that we can face our mothers and our fathers and our God without shame, and say that we played the game square.’

In our college, Honor means more to us than anything else. It is something within ourselves that swells up and overflows, binding us together with ties stronger than iron bands. Honor holds up our hands and we lift higher and yet higher the standards of our college. Irrevocably held together by Honor, let us go onward and upward with happy hearts and smiling faces.”

CONSTITUTION

Whereas, we, the students of LaGrange College desire to assume individual and community responsibility in the life and conduct of the College, thereby manifesting our loyalty, we do hereby, in accordance with the charter granted by the Faculty, organize ourselves into an association based on the system of honor, with a pledge to uphold the ideals in its laws.

BLUE RIDGE

We look on College as a fulfillment of all our dreams, as a place to learn girls and things. But there is a place connected with the College that marks the zenith of our college career, a place of high ideals and of broad vision. That place is Blue Ridge, in the mountains of North Carolina. Blue Ridge is where Y. W. C. A. Conference, which is held each year after College closes, meets. All members of the Association have the privilege of going. The South Atlantic and South Central Fields of the Y. W. C. A. are represented there.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE Y. W. C. A.

1. As a student in a Christian college, every girl should be intensely interested and active in promoting the spiritual atmosphere of the College.

2. Our College needs active, enthusiastic workers.
3. Every student needs the Y. W. C. A. and its activities to bring her into closer fellowship with other students.
4. Training in Christian work will broaden each girl intellectually as well as spiritually.
5. The Y. W. C. A. is the only Christian organization in the College.

HOW TO HELP OUR Y. W. C. A.

1. Be prompt and constant in your attendance at Bible study classes and vespers services.
2. Be silent and reverant in the Prayer Hall.
3. "Be a worker, not a shirker or a jerker" in the Association.
3. Be a genuine "Poltyanna" at all times.

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the Knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain heights,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Banners unfurled o'er all the world,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the Chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King,
And loyally Him obey;
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Standards of worth o'er all the earth,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

FORUM OF DEMOCRACY

President.....	Mary Frances Wiggins
Vice-Presidents.....	{ Mary Floyd Ruth Strain
Secretary.....	Lydia Carter

The Forum of Democracy, comprising the entire student body, was organized for a four-fold purpose; first, to acquaint every student in LaGrange College with vital questions of the day pertaining to human relationships, on the college campus, in rural and urban communities, in the state, in the nation, in the world at large; second, to encourage every student to reflect upon these problems in a spirit of earnestness, liberality, and Christian love; third, to develop in every student the power of expressing her convictions with fluency and force; and fourth, to stimulate in every student a keen desire to shoulder her personal responsibilities as a citizen of America and of the greater Republic of God.

The Forum is divided into two sections, the Arcadians and the Utopians, each of which is divided into five groups. All of the officers and group leaders of the Forum meet in a Normal School every Thursday evening for the purpose of receiving training to lead the separate groups at their meeting on Saturday evenings.

Another division of the Forum is the Honorary Debating Society known as the Forum Club, consisting of two Arcadians and two Utopians to be elected the third week in April by the two college classes that shall make the best record during the course of the regular monthly debates.

It is the plan of the Forum to have several outside speakers during the year.

The Forum is a member of the Southern International Relations Club.

The dues, included in the blanket activity fee, are one dollar a year.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

IRENIAN

This Society is the older and larger society, having been established during the early '70's. It meets every two weeks on Saturday nights. This society has for its purpose the training and development of students; and the programs relate to the topics of foremost interest.

MEZZOFANTIAN

“Hail! Hail! the Black and Gold!
The dear old colors we uphold;
We’re Mezzofantian through and through,
Always faithful, loyal and true.”

New girls bring energy and life to an organization and we want new girls every year! The Mezzofantian Literary Society can repay every bit of spirit and pep a girl gives by giving her something of the grand old Mezzofantian spirit. Mezzo night finds every Mezzo in her place, enthusiastic and eager. The programs are of literary nature, varied with musical and impromptu numbers. The spirit of co-operation within the society successfully meets the pleasant rivalry between the societies.

Since 1887 the Mezzofantians have been improving, and every Mezzo, new or old, feels a thrill of pride and love for the dear old Black and Gold.

QUILL DRIVERS’ CLUB

The Quill Drivers’ Club is one of the most honorary clubs on the hill. To become a member you must have some literary ability. The main purpose of the club is to edit the college paper.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club is composed of students of the Expression Department and others who may be voted into the club because of outstanding dramatic ability.

Programs and plays are given during the year under the direction of the Expression Department. The club contributes much to the social and literary activities of the College.

GLEE CLUB

The College Glee Club is composed of the best voices of the College, under the direction of the Voice Department. Several concerts are given throughout the year, in preparation for which the girls receive some very thorough training in voice,

Each spring the club goes on a state tour, and we hope that this year it will include several out-of-state cities.

PUBLICATIONS

Scroll

The Scroll is published monthly by the Quill Drivers' Club and portrays the literary ability of LaGrange College, as well as the wit and humor. Exchanges, jokes, burlesques, the Y. W. corner, news of alumnae, "cute" articles, and feature stories make the Scroll so attractive that every one on the hill just counts the days until time for it to come out.

Keep this book, it is valuable.

Courtesy and respect are due all Student Government Officers.

Regular course is valuable whether you come to school one year or four.

Ask questions. It is evidence that you are awake and alive.

The library is not a forest of whispering leaves. It is a place for absolute quiet.

Borrowing is a bad disease. Guard against it.

Promptness is an important factor in college life.

A broad education cannot be obtained from textbooks alone. Take an active interest in college organizations and athletics.

Don't leave all the work and responsibility to the officers of the student organizations.

Don't judge everybody by your own standards. There might be better ones.

Be sure to learn the Student Government rules.
"Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

WATCH THE
BULLETIN BOARDS

DO AND DON'TS

1. Do remember that the rules and regulations are your best friends while at LaGrange College.
2. Don't forget to show Seniors deference; consider the rights that are justly theirs.
3. Do watch the bulletin boards if you wish to be up to date in the college world.
4. Do remember that trash cans and not campuses are made for trash.
5. Don't cut classes. It is easier to keep up than to catch up.
6. Do be prompt at all meetings, performances, and entertainments.
7. Do remember always the Honor System.
8. Don't forget to learn the words of the college songs in the hand-book. They are sung frequently, especially during the first few days.
9. Don't forget that character is more or less judged by personal appearance.
10. Don't ever forget to register when leaving the campus. You will find the registration book on the table just outside the President's office.
11. Don't forget that it isn't wise to come late to breakfast.
12. Don't forget that 2:30 to 4:30 on Sunday afternoon is QUIET PERIOD.
13. Do remember to turn off your light when leaving your room for any length of time.
14. Don't forget that YOU are held responsible for every regulation found in this hand-book.

ATTENTION NEW GIRLS! WELCOME TO L. C. FIRST THINGS TO LEARN!

COLLEGE SONGS

L-a-G-r-a-n-g-e—Rah!
Oh, L. C. of '27,
To thee we pay our homage true;
We are thy daughters loyal
In all that thou wouldest have us do.
We cast ourselves before thee,
We raise thy anthems to the sky,
L. C. of '27,
We spread thy glory far and wide.

Oh, L. C. will shine to-night!
L. C. will shine!
Shine in her beauty bright
All down the line.
She's all dressed up to-night,
That's a good sign!
When the sun goes down,
And the moon comes up,
L. C. will shine!

Come lift up your voices and sing to L. C.
LaGrange here's to you!
I'll praise her traditions and glory anew,
LaGrange here's to you!
Here's to old L. C. and here's to her fame,
Here's to the women, who honor her name,
Here's to the red and black always the same.
LaGrange here's to you!

But if you want my heart to burst wide open,
Just mention L. C. days;
Just start me thinking of those girls down yonder
And those L. C. ways;
Where the girls all seem so happy
And they make everybody glad;

That's where I want to go
Because I love 'em so.
I've been a-thinking of those good old days gone by
Oh, how I'd like to be back.
Down on L. C. way;
I'd like to wander with you up that hillside
And there I'd like to stay;
I want to see all the girls
And hear the latest news,
But maybe you don't know
About those dog-gone L. C. blues—
Oh, I've got 'em,
Say, I've got 'em;
I've got the L. C. blues.

1. March on L. C. with steadfast heart and strong;
March on L. C. with joyous song,
Rejoice, rejoice for vict'ries you have won.
Let loyalty the watch-word be
March on L. C.

CHORUS

For we are marching, marching 'neath the banner
bright;
Then forward press and win success for dear L. C.
For we are marching, marching ready for the fight
Let loyalty the watch-word be. March on L. C.

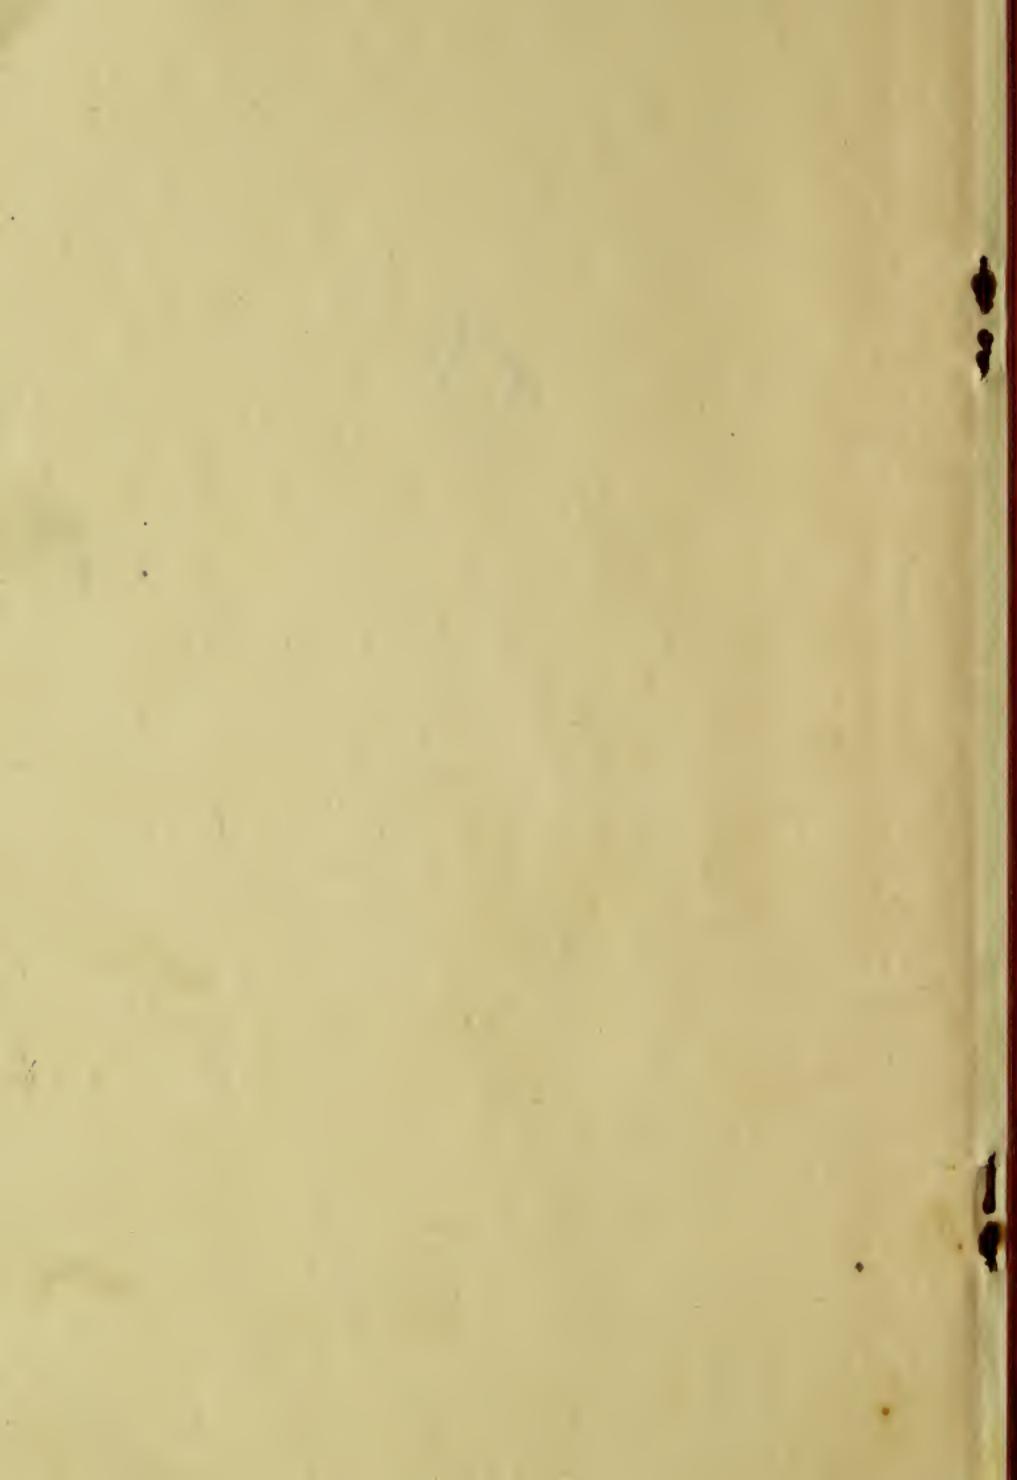

2. March on, L. C. our teachers lead the way;
March on, L. C. their word obey.
Rejoice, rejoice, for glory 'waits thy name
Then heed the call, press forward all;
March on, L. C.
3. March on, L. C. nor falter not nor fear;
March on, L. C. our college dear;
Rejoice, rejoice, for victory 'waits thee,
Let all be true and strength renew;
March on, L. C.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Guardian of our days;
For thy spirit, never failing
We would sing thy praise.
High aloft we hold thy banner,
Ever loyal, true;
Hail, to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

In thy mighty grove of learning
Wisdom's path we've sought;
High upon thy lofty hilltop
Visions have been wrought.
From our hearts we sing the chorus,
Let the sound prolong!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.
